

guard.me®

We've built our reputation on the belief that insurance is something our clients should never have to worry about. That insurance should eliminate stress, not cause it. That even the smallest detail deserves our fullest attention.

For more than 15 years, we've been the people to trust for international education insurance. It's our sole focus, so we've made it our business to be the experts and the innovators in the field.

“Nothing ever lands on my desk. It goes so smoothly... there just are no problems.”

Peggy Nagle, University of Guelph

We'll do everything we can to make the insurance process smooth and simple for you. We'll tailor our policies and procedures to suit your needs exactly. We'll be there, in person, to help your staff and students understand our products and policies. We'll do what it takes to earn your trust—and keep it.

Because insurance is more than I.D. cards and policy numbers. It's a relationship. It's a matter of trust. It's knowing you've made the right choice.
